Politics and Pensioners.

Special to The Tribune. Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, March 5.—Mr. Pratt. the Indian war commissioner who has been sitting here, this week for the purpose of registering applicants for pensions has had a very busy time of it and today it became apparent to him that he would be unable to register all applicants by Saturday evening, the time fixed for his leaving here, and that some of the applibe unable to register all applicants by Saturday evening the time fixed for his leaving here, and that some of the applicants would therefore get left. He accordingly notified Governor Spry, who at once extended the time until Wednesday, evening next. The impression is rapidly gaining ground that many veterans who have no real chance of getting a pension are being urged to register in the hope that their support for the party ticket may thus be secured, since the representation will be made that the success of the Republican party will be necessary in order for the veterans to realize. There is a good deal of talk going on here about this phase of the matter.
